Sr. Boys go to State

The Calico Rock Senior Boys Basketball had a fantastic year. They finished the season with a record of 24-10 overall and 7-3 in conference. Their conference record secured them a first place tie in the 1 A 2n North District. They made a great run at the end of the season. They defeated Maynard in the third place game in regionals; that gave them a boost into the opening round of the state tournament. The Pirates' season came to an end in a hard fought game verse Stephens. The senior boys had many accomplishments this season and represented our school well.

Addiction to Phones

It is a known fact that people are fond of their phones. They use them to keep in touch with people. They also use them to find out random information and keep entertained when they are at the DMV or some other place of great boredom. Sadly, they may have grown too attached to them.

Despite how useful phones may be, people have become too dependent on them. People carry them with them at all times and cannot seem to part with them even for one minute without freaking out (this makes it very enjoyable to take a person's phone.) People really have a problem letting go of their phones, and really, when it's at the point that they sleep with their phone, they have a problem and desperately need help. In fact 68% of people sleep with a phone next to their bed.

Though cell phones may seem like an easy way to save money by conserving energy, in reality people end up spending more money to get the latest or newest model that may only have a few new features to it. I really can't figure out the desire to keep up with the newest technology when what someone has still works fine. If someone actually needs to purchase a new phone because he or she

This years softball team has kicked off its season with a win against Highland Rebels. Both teams played a good game putting us into three extra innings ending the game with a victory at 11-10. The girls also won their second game against Cave City with a final score of 9-5. So Calico Pirates, be watching and waiting for a fantastic season. Make sure you come out and support our girls; there are several home opportunities to cheer for our Lady Pirates. Good luck ladies as you continue with a successful season. I hope you all have a great season full of many wins and lots of memories.

The Month of March

There are a few things everyone should have looked forward to this month! On the 15th of March the band went to Green County Tech to perform a small concert. They performed "Project March" and "Brentwood Pass". They also did some sight reading. During this session they were given a piece of music, that they had not saw beforehand, and were given seven minutes to review it. The band then would collectively play it for a judge. Don't forget to congratulate them on making an over all 3 and 2 in sight reading! Way to go guys!

Matheletes take home the gold!

On March 1st at the Arkansas State University Campus in Mountain Home, some of our very own competed in a very important math competition. The categories of Pre Calculus, Calculus, Geometry, Algebra 1, and Algebra 2 gave out tests determining which student did the best in their subject. From Calico, Olivia Simpson took home first place in Algebra 1, Mandy Jones scored second in Calculus, Jordan Cottrell claimed the prize of second place in Pre Calculus, and Jacob Pollock was right behind him, taking third in the ranks. Congrats to the winners, you've made Calico proud. We hope you have a wonderful time at state!

Next Week:

The Oscars 2014

On March 2nd, the 86th Annual Academy Awards were held at the Dolby Theatre in Hollywood, California. It was a night of fashion, fun, and one giant selfie! The show was hosted by Ellen DeGeneres, who gave the event a very comical note. She made jokes about the nominees, gave them pizza, and even involved the crowd in a selfie that made Twitter crash, breaking the world record for the most retweets (second picture shown below). There were some great performances by Pharrell Williams singing his song "Happy", and Pink, who sang a tribute to Judy Garland from The Wizard of Oz, with the song "Somewhere Over the Rainbow".

The performances were not the only things that were spectacular; the fashion was amazing as well! It ranged from flowing blue dresses to unique black dresses. The celebrities rocked the red carpet (as shown above). In certain polls online, it shows that the best-dressed winner was Sandra Bullock!

Some of the highlights of the event were the winners of the awards, like Jared Leto winning the Best Actor in a Supporting Role award for his movie Dallas Buyers Club. Other winners included 12 Years A Slave for Best Picture, the movie Her for Best Original Screenplay, and the movie Frozen for Best Animated Feature.

One film that cleaned up at the Oscars was the movie Gravity, taking home the awards for Best Cinematography, Best Directing, Best Film Editing, Best Original Score, Best Sound Editing, Best Sound Mixing, and Best Visual Effects. Though Bullock did not receive an Oscar for this movie, the film itself raked in seven Oscars! I'm sure the creators of the film are very proud.

Other movies that picked up extra awards were Frozen, who collected the Best Original Song with "Let it Go". Also, The Great Gatsby won Best Costume Design and Best Production Design. Leonardo DiCaprio should be satisfied, it was a great movie!

To sum it up, Angelina Jolie accepted the Humanitarian Award, as the night drew to a close. The celebrities went to the after parties to celebrate the last big red carpet event of the season.
