

What is My Child Expected to Learn?

The following link will take you to the standards that teachers use to determine what students need to be able to do in the classroom. If you have any questions about standards or would like more information, please contact the classroom teacher and set up a meeting with them.

The screenshot displays the website for the Arkansas Department of Education, specifically the 'Arkansas Academic Standards' page. The browser address bar shows the URL: <https://dese.ade.arkansas.gov/Offices/learning-services/curriculum-support/arkansas-academic-standards>. The page header includes the logo for the Division of Elementary & Secondary Education and the Department of Education, along with the name of Johnny Key, Secretary. A navigation menu is visible with options: About, Stakeholders, State Board, Offices, Directory, Tools, and Search. The main content area features a grid of icons representing various academic subjects: CS FOR AR (with #CSFORAR and #ARKIDSCANCODE), ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS, FINE ARTS, HEALTH & PE, LIBRARY MEDIA, MATHEMATICS, SCIENCE, SOCIAL STUDIES, and WORLD LANGUAGES. A sidebar on the left lists various services and resources, including the Arkansas Initiative for Instructional Materials (AIIM), Response to Intervention, Dyslexia, Office of Education Ombudsmen, Course Approvals, Competency-Based Education Opportunities, Arkansas Graduation Requirements, Curriculum Leader Announcements, Educator Listserv Announcements, DESE Digital Learning Unit, Digital Learning Guide, Digital Learning Providers, English Learners, Gifted & Talented and Advanced Placement, Guidance and School Counseling, G.U.I.D.E. for Life, Home School, Professional Development, and E. Arkansas. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the system tray with a search bar, task icons, and system information: 84°F Mostly cloudy, 9:21 AM, 8/17/2022.
